

J FEDERAL PROGRAMS' NEWSLETTER

Title I Part A

Each school that receives Title I, Part A funds developed jointly with, agreed on with, and distributed to, parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement plan. If you would like to view your child's school Parent and Family Engagement Plan, it is located on your school's website, or you can ask your child's school for a copy.

Be on the lookout for your school's next Parent Family Engagement Night. It will feature the new Math B.E.S.T. Standards.

– Rene' Johnson, ext. 2412

Title I Part C

Through an agreement with Alachua County, our migrant students can receive additional services. Does your child qualify as a migrant student?

Title I Part C: Migrant Education Program

– Keirah Bandstra, ext. 2223

Title II

Continual professional development opportunities are provided to our teachers and administration. January is packed with staff PD in Canvas, Citrus County's learning management system.

– Lindy Woythaler, ext. 2232

Title III

Starting in January, English Language Learners (ELLs) take an English language proficiency test every year known as ACCESS for ELLs. A language proficiency level is a measurement of where students are in the ongoing process of building language skills. Test scores assist in deciding what English language support services should be provided, guide instruction, and progress monitor ELL students.

– Megan Furniss, ext. 2238

Title IX

Citrus County has a new Homeless Education Program Facilitator! Her name is Nichelle Mohre-Cassidy, and she comes to us from Hernando County. She has hit the ground running and is doing all she can to assist students and families in transition. Her contact info is mohrecassidyn@citrussschools.org or 352-726-1931, ext. 6312. If you cannot reach her in the office, please feel free to call or text her at her Google Voice number – 352-587-5155.

– Karen Lisa, ext. 2229

The Title IV federal program is involved with supporting our local "All Kids Bike Program" by the Phil Royal Legacy. Check out this program on the Citrus County School District Facebook page.
